Technical Information Circulars for AgriStability

Filing the Appropriate Forms

General Information

AgriStability Program participants are required to submit the program forms and file farming income and expense to Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) by the application deadline. SCIC has developed a series of forms for collection of this information. Through use of these forms producers are able to provide the relevant information which will allow SCIC to calculate applicable benefits for the program year. Please refer to the categories below to ensure you are completing the appropriate form.

NOTE: The Harmonized AgriStability and AgriInvest Program Information and Statement of Farming Activities for Individuals form or T1163 form provided by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) is referred to as the AgriStability Harmonized Form for Individuals in this circular. The Corporations/Co-operatives/Other Entities form, and Supplemental Accrual Information forms are provided by SCIC.

Program forms are located on the external website <https://www.scic.ca/agristability>

Program year specific forms, such as:

- Interim application
- Corporations / Co-operatives / Other Entities
- Supplemental Information
- Accrual and Hybrid Inventory Adjustment

Other Administrative Forms:

Sole Proprietorship (including individuals in a partnership)

Sole Proprietorships (including individuals in a partnership) must complete and submit the AgriStability Harmonized Form for Individuals (T1163) and provide their Social Insurance Number (SIN) to the CRA. When completing the AgriStability Harmonized Form for Individuals (T1163), only the tax (income and expense) information needs to be completed and sent to the CRA. All the supplemental information including inventories, purchased inputs, deferrals, payables and receivables are to be entered on the Supplemental Accrual Information form and submitted to SCIC. The form can be found at <https://www.scic.ca/>

Individuals in a partnership must each submit separate program applications; reporting 100 per cent of the partnership's income, expenses, accounts payable, accounts receivable, purchased inputs, and inventory. They also must identify their percentage share of the partnership. SCIC will calculate each partner's share of government benefits based on each person's percentage share of the operation.

Estates

Estates must complete and submit the AgriStability Harmonized Form for Individuals and provide their SIN. If the estate is also filing a return for Rights and Things, the Corporations/Co-operatives/Other Entities form provided by SCIC must also be submitted. SCIC will combine the information provided on both forms.

In order to close estate accounts SCIC may require the executor/executrix submit the following documentation:

- a written request to close the account signed by the executor/executrix or administrator.
- a certified copy of the probated will or letters of administration/probate; and/or
- a certified copy of the death certificate.
