

Technical Information Circulars for AgriStability Ending Participation in AgriStability Program

General Information

There are two ways to end your participation in AgriStability:

1. When you receive your Enrolment/Fee Notice for the upcoming program year, use the appropriate check box to indicate that you do not want to participate and submit the tear-off portion by the deadline indicated on the Enrolment/Fee Notice to SCIC. Please note, if you do not notify SCIC by the Enrolment/Fee Notice deadline, you will be required to pay the Administrative Cost Share, and any applicable program fees and penalties for that program year. It is your responsibility to notify SCIC by the applicable deadlines if you would like to rejoin the program in the future.
2. You can also end participation in AgriStability by completing the Cancel Participation form. You must complete and return the cancellation form by the applicable deadline. Otherwise, you will be required to pay the Administrative Cost Share, and any applicable program fees and penalties for that program year. The Cancel Participation form is available online at <https://www.scic.ca/agristability/forms>

When completing the Cancel Participation form, please complete the follow:

1. Enter your SCIC ID and AgriStability PIN on the top right-hand side of the form.

Ending Participation in AgriStability Program

- Select one of the two options to cancel and provide the reason for cancelling.

Please select one of the two options and enter the relevant program year:

Please cancel my participation in AgriStability for only the [redacted] program year. (Please note: To participate in future program years you will be required to contact SCIC and request enrolment by the April 30 enrolment deadline. See the AgriStability Program handbook for more details.)

Please cancel my participation in the AgriStability Program completely. I understand by selecting this option I will not be participating in AgriStability for the current or subsequent program years.

SCIC must be notified of cancellation by the April 30 enrolment deadline. If the deadline is missed you will be automatically enrolled and required to pay your fees, plus any late penalties. When participation in the program is canceled, producers will remain out of the AgriStability program until they re-apply. (See the AgriStability Program Handbook for enrolment details.)

Reason for cancelling:

Ceased farming

Dissatisfaction with AgriStability program

Death of participant
